Robert Brose

Robert Brose, Sr., 96, passed away peacefully Thursday, March 25, 2021, at Ganderson Health System. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, a private family funeral service will be held.
He was born to George and Ethel Brose in Hamlin, Iowa, the youngest of four children. He attended Hamlin High School and served as a clerk with the city of La Manager at La Crosse Cooler Co, as a bread route driver, office sion – PTA, Logan sports, Beth of La Crosse, Wisc. They be-yaughter, parents, brother Glenn, and sis-mother and grandparents are Don and Crosby are being explored.

lar flights to towns of Tioga williston next month, project was the production company.

ners is the production company.

movie “Rango” showing at the

or “poster picture” for advertising

as Semolina Specialties.

coveted needs of the com-

amy Anderson, Britta Foss,

cessful for five Tioga seniors,

eration proves to be very suc-

munity meeting.

engineering skills during a com-

he Tioga Medical Center

auxiliary host a spring fashion

region for her strong yet an-

region for her strong yet an-

safety helped on their way to

orally helped on their way to

,n and his many friends at Spring-

and for their kindness and sup-

He will be greatly missed. We also appreciate

living care he received at

Ganderson Health System dur-

his final days.

a special thanks to the staff

l, Brynn (Brock) Winkler, and

Children, William (Brooke)

of the cities of:

1948, in North Da-

January 29, 1941, in Tioga, the

in North Dakota to qualifies to be one of 100 stu-

Grinder at Wildrose-Alamo,

farm with an open house spon-pacity to accommodate needs of the com-some minor remodeling to ac-the hospital.

Auxiliary host a spring fashion

only three years old and is a place for her strong yet an-

and Mabel Raan.

farm with an open house spon-

 hers is the production company.

ners is the production company.

movie “Rango” showing at the

or “poster picture” for advertising

as Semolina Specialties.

coveted needs of the com-

amy Anderson, Britta Foss,

cessful for five Tioga seniors,

eration proves to be very suc-

munity meeting.

engineering skills during a com-

he Tioga Medical Center

auxiliary host a spring fashion

region for her strong yet an-

region for her strong yet an-

safety helped on their way to

orally helped on their way to

,n and his many friends at Spring-

and for their kindness and sup-

He will be greatly missed. We also appreciate

living care he received at

Ganderson Health System dur-

his final days.

a special thanks to the staff

l, Brynn (Brock) Winkler, and

Children, William (Brooke)