Inwood, Iowa. Her funeral was April 15, 2017 at Canton Lutheran Church.

Fluff Lauritzen was born July 15, 1956, at Canton, South Dakota, to Vernon and Doris Paulson. Fluff was born and raised in the Canton area. Fluff was a farmer by trade and operated Robbins Masonry and Lumber Company in Canton, South Dakota to Vernon and Doris Paulson.

Fluff Lauritzen passed from this life February 19, 1929, at Canton, South Dakota, to Vernon and Doris Paulson. Fluff was born and raised in the Canton area. Fluff was a farmer by trade and operated Robbins Masonry and Lumber Company in Canton, South Dakota to Vernon and Doris Paulson.

Fluff Lauritzen was united in marriage to Georgia Paulson on April 20, 1980. Fluff and Georgia were married for 37 years. Fluff was active in the Canton community. Fluff was also active in the Canton school system, serving on several boards.

Fluff Lauritzen was survived by his wife, Georgia; daughters: Heather (Kevin) Robbins, Sara (Stark) Rolling; sons: Donald “Butch” Robbins, 72, Canton, South Dakota; and Butch joined the US Marines in 1967 and served in Okinawa, Japan, and Vietnam. Butch owned and operated Robbins Masonry and Lumber Company in Canton, South Dakota to Vernon and Doris Paulson.

Fluff Lauritzen was a member of the Seabees Construction Battalion. He was active in the Canton community. Fluff was active in the Canton school system, serving on several boards.

Fluff Lauritzen was united in marriage to Georgia Paulson on April 20, 1980. Fluff and Georgia were married for 37 years. Fluff was active in the Canton community. Fluff was also active in the Canton school system, serving on several boards.

Fluff Lauritzen was survived by his wife, Georgia; daughters: Heather (Kevin) Robbins, Sara (Stark) Rolling; sons: Donald “Butch” Robbins, 72, Canton, South Dakota; and Butch joined the US Marines in 1967 and served in Okinawa, Japan, and Vietnam. Butch owned and operated Robbins Masonry and Lumber Company in Canton, South Dakota to Vernon and Doris Paulson.

Fluff Lauritzen was united in marriage to Georgia Paulson on April 20, 1980. Fluff and Georgia were married for 37 years. Fluff was active in the Canton community. Fluff was also active in the Canton school system, serving on several boards.

Fluff Lauritzen was survived by his wife, Georgia; daughters: Heather (Kevin) Robbins, Sara (Stark) Rolling; sons: Donald “Butch” Robbins, 72, Canton, South Dakota; and Butch joined the US Marines in 1967 and served in Okinawa, Japan, and Vietnam. Butch owned and operated Robbins Masonry and Lumber Company in Canton, South Dakota to Vernon and Doris Paulson.