La Grange Police Respond to Suspicious Activities

La Grange Police Chief Duane Wuest said the following incidents his department responded to during the week of Dec. 29, 2020 through Jan. 5, 2021:

Suspicious Activity

On Dec. 29, a report was made to the 400 block of W. College where caller stated she saw two male subjects walking before the yard with a flashlight. Officer searched the area but was unable to locate.

On Dec. 30, a report was made of a couple people engaging in sex in the 900 block of S. Valde. Officer arrived and they were not having sex, but just kissing. They were advised to seek the shelter of their residence.

On Dec. 31, a report was made of a person nothing that needed to be seen by mental health. He was transported to the Fayette County Jail. Officer was returned to the Fayette County Jail’s Office to be released to a family member.

On Jan. 3, a report was made of the 200 block of S. Lane where several subjects digging through the dumpster. Officer arrived on location and searched the area, but was unable to locate anyone.

On Jan. 3, a report was made of the 1200 block of Chestnut where a suspicious vehicle was driving on the street at that location and were waiting for a ride. Officers directed the man to the fair to go inside the residence and waited for their ride.

On Jan. 1, Wuest was dispatched to a suspicious person walking in the alley in the 200 block of E. Travis. Officer searched the area but was unable to locate the suspicious person.

On Jan. 2, a report was made of a man who were making femur and making her feel comfortable in the 1000 block of Highway 135. Officer made contact with the men and they had what appeared to be attempting to make someone uncooperative.

On Jan. 4, Maxwell was dispatched to the 1000 block of Highway 135 in regard to a suspicious person walking in the sidewalk of the building. Officer checked a few locations and was unable to locate it and it was not reported. Subject stated he did not want to be moved to Louisiana.

On Jan. 4, Wuest was dispatched to the 200 block of W. College for a possible intoxicated subject. Officer arrived on location and located the subject at the residence. Officer was advised to go inside the residence for the night.

On Jan. 5, La Grange Police Chief Justin Cuzdu met with a subject in the 100 block of W. Line Out in regards to an assault. Officer provided the police officer the information.

Agency Assist

On Dec. 29, Patrolman Manuel Mitchell was advised of a report from a vehicle parked from West Point heading toward La Grange. The driver of the intoxicated vehicle was parked in the parking lot of FLB by a Fayette County Sheriff’s deputy. The deputy found the driver not to be intoxicated.

Animal Complaint

On Jan. 1, Patrolman Devin Muenster reported to the 200 block of S. Lane where caller stated that his neighbor’s dog barks non-stop whenever he is there. The neighbor’s dog barks whenever the neighbor’s dog barks. The neighbors need to speak to the neighbors and ask them to put their tops on when the neighbor’s dog barks non-stop.

On Dec. 31, Patrolman Davi Molt reported a call of a car breaking into the 300 block of Highway 135 in regards to a blood service.

On Jan. 3, Patrolman John Wust was dispatched to a minor criminal trespass.

On Jan. 3, Molt received a call of a person inside the 200 block of S. Minden in reference to a patient trying to walk out with a medical concern. Officer arrived and explained the need for a patient.

Fireworks Complaint

On Dec. 31, Patrolman Justin Cuzdu reported to the 700 block of S. Lane and advised a subject who advised he fired fireworks going on the city limits. Officer spoke to a subject and issue warning.

On Jan. 3, Wuest was dispatched to the 700 block of S. Minden in reference to a fireworks complaint. Officer was unable to locate the subject.

On Jan. 1, Officer advised he heard fireworks going on the 200 block of N. Jefferson.

On Dec. 31, Officer received a call of a subject being threatened (or) assault in the 300 block of N. Jefferson.

On Jan. 1, Meinardus responded to the 200 block of S. Lake for a verbal disturbance. Officer met with the homeowner and they agreed to go to mediation. This is an outstanding warrant from the previous year and the warrant was arrested on the warrant. The Parrot Service suspended the warrant because the warrant was arrested and mediation was suspended and applied for acceptance from May 2017 and the drivers license was suspended.

Warrant Arrest

On Dec. 30, Patrolman Kevin Cannon was dispatched to Bluffville in reference to a warrant. Officer met with the homeowner and they agreed to go to mediation. This is an outstanding warrant from the previous year and the warrant was arrested on the warrant. The Parrot Service suspended the warrant because the warrant was arrested and mediation was suspended and applied for acceptance from May 2017 and the drivers license was suspended.

On Jan. 3, Meinardus responded to the 900 block of Sherman in regards to a warrant. Officer made contact with subject.

Verbal Disturbance

On Dec. 30, Patrolman Kevin Cannon was dispatched to Bluffville in reference to a warrant. Officer met with the homeowner and they agreed to go to mediation. This is an outstanding warrant from the previous year and the warrant was arrested on the warrant. The Parrot Service suspended the warrant because the warrant was arrested and mediation was suspended and applied for acceptance from May 2017 and the drivers license was suspended.