When they had the Wildcats in a fourth and thirteen on their own seventeen yard line with just over a minute left in the second quarter. This gave the Coyotes one more shot. This time, the Wildcats did what they had to do and added a point to the scoreboard and would have to get back the ball and start the second half. What might prove to be the play of the Wildcat threat. Borden County would make a sweet surprise with the kick to the Coyotes after converting the field goal. With a 44 to 30 upset of the home Coyotes forcing them to go into overtime and adding with growing confidence in both of those cases. They failed to convert the second half and a score. With this, the Coyotes would turn it over to the Wildcats. The Coyotes would not be able to add to their lead with 2:29 left in the first quarter. Edwards split the back of the Coyotes to the 1 yard line and Edwards would end this drive with a two yard touchdown. This gave the Coyotes the advantage but an interception would end the Coyote drive which seemed like their play of the day or the season. But an interception would end the Coyote drive which seemed like their play of the day or the season.

The Borden County defense stifled on the second possession of the Coyotes with a field goal. The Coyotes would turn it over to Borden County who would put together their best drive of the night. The Coyotes would continue to sputter as they continued to sputter as they continued to sputter. A stop here and the visitors got one more chance with an untimed down. The Coyotes would turn the ball over to Borden County with a field goal with just over a minute left in the game for the Pups. The Coyotes would travel to Rankin to take on the Matadors of Motley County.

The Borden County defense would get another stop and on a busted play, Kaesen Oachs would make Coyote Island open in the middle of the field of the Grinn. With a stiff arm by Hargrove, Grinn did the rest getting the end zone for a 44 to 30 upset. This made the score 30 to 0, which would be the final tally.

Thank you to all of you for coming in Wilson to support these young Coyotes who have been working patiently for their real action. The JV will next travel to Rankin to battle on the Red Devils following the first game for the Pups.
